

THE UNIVERSITY OF GEORGIA

College of EDUCATION

Announces the First Conference

On

Black Issues in Higher Education

February 3, 2006

8:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m.

Masters Hall/Georgia Center

Featured Speakers:

Dr. Norvella Carter

Endowed Chair of Urban Studies
Texas A&M University

Dr. Vanessa Siddle-Walker

Winship Distinguished Research Professor
Emory University

Panel Discussions:

Surviving and Publishing at a Research I University

Panelists: Ronald M. Cervero, Kecia Thomas, Diane Batts Morrow

The Intricacies of Mentoring Minority & Women Faculty

Panelists: Rosemary Phelps, Patricia Miller, Juanita Johnson-Bailey

Leadership & Administration in the Academy

Panelists: Rob Branch, Sally Zepeda, Cheryl Dozier

Closing Speaker:

Talmadge Guy

Registration Information:

Cost: $20

Deadline: February 1, 2006

Phone: 706-542-2134

Fax: 706-542-6596 (pdf form available on website)

Web: www.georgiacenter.uga.edu/conferences/conferences.phtml

College of EDUCATION

Agenda

Registration.....8:30 – 8:55

Welcome9:00 – 10:30

Dean Louis Castenell, Jr.
Opening Speaker
Dr. Norvella Carter
Endowed Chair of Urban Studies
Texas A&M University, College

Surviving and Publishing at a Research I University.....10:45 – noon

Panel Members
Ron Cervero
Kecia Thomas
Diane Batts Morrow

Lunch.....12:15 – 1:30

Keynote Speaker.....12:45 – 1:30

Dr. Vanessa Siddle-Walker
Winship Distinguished Research Professor
Emory University, Atlanta

The Intricacies of Mentoring Minority & Women Faculty1:45 – 2:30
2:45 – 3:30

Panel Members
Rosemary Phelps
Patricia Miller
Juanita Johnson-Bailey

Leadership & Administration in the Academy1:45 – 2:30
2:45 – 3:30

Panel Members
Rob Branch
Sally Zepeda
Laura Bierema

Raconteur - Tal Guy3:45 – 4:30

Reception.....4:45 – 6:00