

Dean's Student Advisory Council

September 21, 2007

SUMMARY

OLD BUSINESS

Purpose of Group:

Weak history of working with students outside of classroom. DSAC to be a communication bridge between Dean and students. Opportunity for Dean to solicit suggestions.

DSAC Web page:

Create web link from COE homepage for students to access information about DSAC. To include names, photographs, and email contact of members, purpose of group and mission statement.

NEW BUSINESS

Open Forum Evening with the Dean:

Forum for questions/answer session between students and Dean. Opportunity to increase student involvement with COE. DSAC to provide topics (to include: curriculum structure, advising, diversity, admission into high demand programs, study space, graduate school & professional assistance). Include 3-5 prewritten big issue items to spark dialogue – to be submitted at next meeting.

Major Information Night at Residence Halls:

Info session about COE at relevant dorms (Brumby, East Village). Opportunity to recruit students for COE (topics to include: majors offered, credit transfers, et al.)

Next Meeting Date:

Friday, November 16, 3-5pm. G23 Aderhold Hall with Dean Castenell.
