

Tues., Nov. 6 & Mon., 12, 2007

Time: 4:30-7:30 pm

Dinner Dialogue for Diversity

Clarke Central, UGA's College of Education, and the CCSD Board of Education are joining together to discuss "Why Are All the Black Kids Sitting Together in the Cafeteria?" During Session I we will discuss the book, and during Session II the author, Beverly Daniel Tatum, will discuss the book with us.

Save the dates!!!

Beverly Daniel Tatum, President of Spelman College, will discuss with us a framework for thinking and talking about race.

Be part of a unique high school/university/board of education partnership.

Engage in professional conversations over dinner

Attend both sessions and earn 1 PLU (CCHS)

Dinner will be provided about half way through each session.

If you would like to participate, email Linda Boza bozal@clarke.k12.ga.us by September 20th.