For us to adequately evaluate your application, we need to have a sense of what you see as pertinent in your background, your current interests, and your ultimate career objectives. Given the number of qualified applicants for our programs and the magnitude of the investment you are contemplating, it is in your best interest to share this with us. In addition to helping us evaluate your application, this will also help us assign you to a temporary advisor should we recommend your admission.

- 1. In one or two pages please provide us with a statement of your career goals (all applicants) and your research interests (MA and Ph.D. applicants) including any relevant experiences or skills not noted on your vita.

- 2. Attach a current copy of your curriculum vita or resume including a list of any professional organizations to which you belong.

When completed, please return these materials to:
