Experiences with adolescents in school or tutoring contexts are highly valued in this application. Interactions with groups representative of cultures and backgrounds unlike your own are important to bring to the application committee's attention. [Please approximate the number of hours you spent in each experience you cite.]

The application committee anticipates honesty from applicants. The committee may seek to verify experiences documented in the application. Given COE's and UGA's code of honor, application information that is untrue or misleading or incomplete constitutes grounds for dismissal.
