Required Reading

McGuire, J.V. (2005) Conversations about being a teacher. Thousand Oaks, CA: Corwin Press.

Course Assignments

All course assignments, including a book contract, written reflections based on readings and classroom experiences, and questions generated for panel participants, will be discussed in detail in class.

Attendance and Participation

Regular, on-time attendance is essential for you to benefit from the course and participate in it meaningfully. You are responsible for all class meetings (assignments, explanations, instructions, schedule changes, etc.) whether present or not. Class will begin promptly at the scheduled time. Please be on time.

According to UGA policies, any student who incurs an excessive number of absences will be administratively withdrawn from the course and will receive a grade of WF, unless there is a documented circumstance of genuine hardship (e.g., hospitalization) as determined by the Assistant Vice President for Student Affairs, in which case a grade of W will be given. For EDMS 5040 Spring 2005, an excessive number of absences is defined as missing more than 7 hours of class time.

Grading Procedure

EDMS 5040 is graded Satisfactory/Unsatisfactory (S/U). Requirements for a grade of S include regular attendance and class participation, as well as successful completion of all course and assignments.

Course Policies

1. The University of Georgia's policies on academic honesty are strictly enforced in this class (see the UGA Graduate Bulletin and/or the UGA Undergraduate Bulletin). Please familiarize yourself with these policies.
2. This syllabus provides a general guide for the course; deviations may be necessary.

College of Education Conceptual Framework

The College of Education aspires to provide exemplary, reflective professionals to serve a diverse global community; it seeks to achieve that end through teaching, scholarship, outreach, and partnership at the local, national, and international levels.
