Course Description: Students in this course will examine the concept of service learning and engage in service learning experiences.

Democratic Learning: We will use the principles of democratic learning as a framework for our class. These principles are listed below.

Democratic Learning Principles

- Students work actively with problems, ideas, materials, and people as they learn skills and content.
- Students have escalating degrees of choice within the parameters provided by the instructor.
- Students contribute to their community through their learning.
- Students demonstrate their learning in public settings and receive public feedback.
- Students are assessed according to high academic standards.

Required Readings:

Cress, C.M., Collier, P.J., & Reitenauer, V.L. (2005). Learning through serving: A student guidebook for service-learning across the disciplines. Sterling, VA: Stylus Publishing, LLC.

Course Requirements and Assessment:

Grading:

Please see the attached information on course requirements and the associated points for each. A total of 250 points is available in this class. EDEC/EDMS 5060/7060 is graded with an A-F designation (225-250=A; 200-224=B; 175-199=C; 0-174=F).

Course Policies:

Attendance Policy:

Regular, on-time attendance is essential for you to benefit from the course and participate meaningfully. You are responsible for all class meetings and all individual or group project consultations (e.g., assignments, explanations, instructions, etc.) whether present or not. If you are going to be absent, please discuss it with the instructor prior to your absence.

1. After two missed classes/consultations, the student's final grade will be dropped one letter grade.
2. After three missed classes/consultations, the student's final grade will be dropped another letter grade.
3. On the fourth missed class/consultation, the student will be assigned a grade of withdraw failing (WF), unless there is a documented circumstance of genuine hardship (e.g., hospitalization) as determined by the Assistant Vice President for Student Affairs, in which case a grade of W will be given.
4. Missing more than 30 minutes of a class, at any time during the class, will be considered an absence (e.g., arriving late or leaving early) unless approved by the instructor.

Academic Honesty:

The University of Georgia’s policies on academic honesty are strictly enforced in this class (see the UGA Graduate Bulletin and/or the UGA Undergraduate Bulletin). Please familiarize yourself with these policies. I encourage you to review examples of service learning projects and to collaborate with your classmates, as necessary, on your work. However, the work submitted for this course must represent your own learning and initiative.

Syllabus:

This syllabus provides a general guide for the course; deviations may be necessary.
