

GOLF FOR BUSINESS & LIFE SYLLABUS

The Golf for Business & Life course number is “PEDB1121” and has one session with a maximum of 24 students per class. Each session will have 32 hours of instruction. Golf Professional Teacher Ratio will be on an 8 to 1 basis. Registration for the 1 credit hour class is online. Cost is $125 per person.

Sessions will be offered Tuesdays & Thursdays from 3:35pm to 5:30pm. Fall 2007 class starts on August 16 and ends on October 18.

This program is partially funded by a donation made by 2002 & 2004 Ryder Cup Team Member Davis Love III.

Goals for this class include:

- To develop an appreciation and knowledge of the history and origin of golf.
- To perform golf skills (full swing, pitching, chipping and putting) with proficiency.
- To enjoy and appreciate golf’s contributions to personal exercise and pleasure.

Objectives for this class include:

- To gain knowledge and be able to apply golf terminology, rules and etiquette.
- To understand and apply biomechanical principles and individual preferences related to an individual’s golf abilities.
- To play a 9-hole round of golf.
- To understand and appreciate the challenges golf presents to the skilled performer.
- To use safety precautions on the practice area and golf course.

Topical outline for the course can be found in the Golf: For Business & Life Student Manual.

University Honor Code and Academic Honesty Policy adhered to for golf classes. All academic work must meet the standards contained in “A Culture of Honesty.” Students are responsible for informing themselves about those standards before performing any academic work.

The course syllabus is a general plan for the course; deviations announced to the class by the instructor may be necessary.
