18, 19, 21, 22, 26	Participate in a learning disability simulation	Students will be present to participate in simulation of learning problems relating to listening, writing, mathematics, reasoning, speaking and reading.
22, 23, 24, 28	Reaction to film Relating to individuals with disabilities	Students will complete one Film Reaction paper. Instructions and Rubric will Be distributed to students during the second class.

Specific activities addressing competencies:

- Participation in class discussion and activities. Students are expected to attend and participate. Whole class discussion is encouraged, and expected. Periodically small groups may be formed to focus on particular topics (usually current trends and issues) and reports from these small groups are presented during class.
- Complete assigned readings: Students are expected to complete readings from the text, and supplementary materials.
- Complete 4 examinations and 1 final examination: The examinations will be periodic and will cover material through objective and subjective questioning.
- Film Reaction: Students will choose one film whose content focuses on an individual with a particular disability. They will respond in writing to particular requirements that correlate with information that has been presented in classroom lectures and in the content of the text to the content of the film or book. These particular areas include: specific psychological and behavioral characteristics of the individual, the etiology of the disability (if known), the reactions of the others (excluding family members) in the film to the person with the disability, the type of family support for the person with the disability, and how the individual would be taught and type of behavioral support provided in the classroom environment.

GENERAL INFORMATION:

- Students are expected to attend class weekly and be present for every discussion / activity. If a class is missed, it is the responsibility of the student to get the information presented in class. Attendance will be spot checked 10 times during the semester by signing in. Each time a student is present to sign in, one point will be added to the lowest test grade (not including the final). I do not “round up” grades.
- Students are expected to participate in discussion sessions and in-class activities.
- The format of the tests can vary. They may or may not be scantron graded. Grades will be posted outside the classroom as soon as they are available.
- It is sometimes necessary to remind a very few students that everyone in this class is expected to do their own work. Students who choose to violate the standards of ethical conduct will be dealt with as outlined in A Culture of Honesty: Policies and Procedures on Academic Honesty, distributed by UGA.
- If you have a request for services based on a documented disability, notify me by the second class with documented information, and I will make arrangements for these services.

GRADES WILL BE ASSIGNED ON THE FOLLOWING SCALE:

- FOUR TESTS: POSSIBLE 100 POINTS EACH 10 POSSIBLE ATTENDANCE POINTS
- ONE FILM EVALUATION PAPER: POSSIBLE 100 POINTS
- FINAL EXAM: (100 POINTS)
- POINTS WILL BE TOTALED AND AVERAGED. A-90/100 B-80/89 C-70/79 D-65/69 F- BELOW 65

I do not “round – up” grades.

TEST / ABSENCES

- If you have an excused absence on the day of a test, you will be able to make up the test within 7 calendar days at an agreed upon time. The make-up test will be constructed in an alternate format (all discussion questions). If you miss a test, and fail to provide a documented excuse within 5 calendar days following the test, the student will not be allowed to make up the test and will receive a zero for that particular test.
- Students who have three final examinations scheduled within a calendar day, or two final examinations at the same time, may petition me to schedule the SPED 2000 exam to a different time of day.
- On examination days, no students will be admitted to the classroom after the first person to finish the examination has left the room. Students are expected to be on time for all exams.
- On completion of the grading of the examinations, the content of the exams will be discussed in class. Students should feel free to take notes relating to the exam during the discussion.
